

Tank, a facility dog and probation officer, works as a member of the of the Turning Point program in Summit County. It's an Ohio Supreme Court-certified drug court, serving non-violent felony offenders who have committed crimes as a result of their addiction to drugs and/or alcohol.

"Nobody can say his name without getting a big smile on their face," said Christine Croce, a presiding judge over Turning Point and the Summit County Court of Common Pleas.

Judge Croce said. "He walks into court and it calms everybody down."

Your generous contribution helps Circle Tail continue to operate training programs in the Ohio Reformatory for Women and Dayton Correctional Institute. Helping Dogs Who Help People takes on a whole new meaning when the trainers' lives are transformed by the dogs before the dog is ever officially placed into service.

We're Still GROWING!

In 1997, Marlys Staley planted the seeds that would bloom into Circle Tail. Little did she know then that her efforts would lead to 22 years of Helping Dogs Who Help People. Circle Tail is fully accredited by Assistance Dogs International and plays a vital role in providing service dogs free of charge to people who need them.

Those seeds are still growing!
Your generous donation will help
Circle Tail fund our brand new, modern kennel/training facility that will accommodate our ever expanding program and provide a safe, healthy, and comfortable environment for our amazing adult dogs, staff, and volunteers.
