Volunteer Spotlight

Our volunteer spotlight shines on Matt

"While completing the Board Orientation and Leadership Development program through the United Way, I learned about Circle Tail and immediately knew I wanted to be a part of this amazing organization. Drawn by the unique opportunity to couple my passion and love for dogs with a desire to positively influence the lives of individuals with disabilities, I was certain this was the place I wanted to be.

After joining the Board of Directors in January, I've been impressed by the no nonsense commitment to Circle Tail's clients and the wonderful, heroic canines that live for helping others. As I continue to learn more every day, I'm excited for the future and finding different ways I can use my skills and experience to help Circle Tail thrive.

With such a great place, it's a challenge to identify my favorite thing about Circle Tail, but I love the unwavering, symbiotic human-canine bond that is such a great benefit for everyone. Pairing the loyalty and love from a dog with the compassion and leadership of a human creates an enduring relationship built on a foundation of helping each other."
