

Foster Family Focus

Emily & Bobby

"If Bobby and I could sum up fostering service dogs in one word, it would be amazement. It amazes us seeing the eagerness and willingness of our foster dogs to want to work and help a person. These special dogs especially amaze us with the impact they make on a person with a disability. We always get asked if it is difficult when we have to give up our foster dogs and the answer is yes, but no. We develop a bond and love for our foster dogs and they become a part of the family, but we are able to return them to Circle Tail because we know the impact they will make on their partners' lives...
